Former Alabama Legislator Jimmy Holley dies at age 80

by Linda Hodge, Editor

Former Alabama Legislator and Elba resident Jimmy Holley died Monday evening, Nov. 4, at the age of 80.

Holley served 44 years in the Alabama Legislature before retiring in 2022 due to failing health. He was first elected in 1974 to the Alabama House of Representative and would continue to serve in that position until 1994.

Then, in 1998, Holley was elected to the Alabama Senate. He represented District 31 in the Senate until 2022.

Elba City Council approves budget with pay raises for employees

The Elba City Council approved the Fiscal Year 2025 budget during its Oct. 28th meeting, and included in the budget was a two percent across the board cost of living adjustment pay increase for employees.

Elba City Clerk Sally Bane noted there is potential for employees to receive as much as five percent overall raise over the fiscal year. On top of the two percent cost of living adjustment, she noted each city employee could receive an additional three percent raise at the anniversary of his/her hire date. This additional three percent is based on job performance and subject to recommendation from department heads.

The grand total revenues anticipated for the FY2025 budget for Elba were just over $5 million while expenditures are expected to be around $4.6 million.

Also, during the council meeting, Jerry Bedsole was reappointed to another term on the airport authority, and Greg Sowell was reappointed to serve another term on the planning and zoning board.

Mayor Tom Maddox noted that Verizon had staked out a spot where that company would like to construct a tower in Elba. This location is across from the Dorsey Trailer facility on Hickman Avenue.

The next Elba City Council meeting will be Tuesday, Nov. 12, at 5:30 p.m. The meeting was moved to Tuesday due to city offices being closed Monday, Nov. 11, for Veterans Day.

Artist, Wes Hardin, is shown working on Phase II of the Elba mural project, which was completed last month. Phase II of the project had Hardin bring an ecological theme, highlighting the Pea River's native species. This features a river otter, turtle, bird, various species of fish, ducks, ferns, and flowers.

Elba's new gateway mural welcomes travelers

The Davis Street entrance into downtown Elba at the levee is now a vibrant display thanks to the newly completed Elba Gateway Mural project.

Spearheaded by the non-profit Foundation154, this public art initiative transforms the floodgate enclosures on the Simmons Bridge along Davis Street with imagery that celebrate the city's historic landmarks and the native wildlife of the Pea River.

Completed in September 2024, Phase I of Elba's Gateway Mural introduced a vintage postcard-style "Welcome to Elba" mural, showcasing iconic local structures such as the Coffee County Courthouse, the old Elba High School, the Elba Theatre, and the fountain in front of the courthouse. Funded by proceeds from Rockin' the River, the Pirate Murder Mystery event, private donations, and a grant from the Alabama State Council on the Arts, this mural captures the heart of Elba's historic downtown.

Building on that success, Phase II was completed in October 2024 and brings an ecological theme that highlights the Pea River's native species. This section features a river otter, turtle, bird, various species of fish, ducks, ferns, and flowers, illustrating the natural beauty surrounding Elba. Funding for Phase II was generously provided by the Alabama State Council on the Arts, Wiregrass RC&D, private donations, and proceeds from the Monster Murder Mystery event.

"Our goal with Elba's Gateway Mural is to reflect the spirit of Elba—its history, community, and natural charm—through art," said Laurie Chapman, Foundation154 board member. "The response to the murals has been overwhelmingly positive, as residents and visitors alike see Elba celebrated."

"Together, these murals create a welcoming gateway that honors both our community's heritage and the natural environment that defines us," Chapman added. "The project stands as a testament to Elba's commitment to celebrating its unique identity through art."

To commemorate the project, Foundation154 invites the community to the Elba Gateway Mural Dedication Ceremony, a celebration of the mural's completion and the collaborative spirit that brought it to life. This event will be held Tuesday, Nov. 12, at 1 p.m. and will offer attendees the opportunity to view the murals up close and meet the artist, Wes Hardin, and his assistant Heidi Tillery. Parking will be available in the parking lot behind The Rabbit Hole on Yelverton Street in Elba.

Track and Field coming to Elba City Schools

by Linda Hodge, Editor

Elba High School teacher and coach Tyler Reeves believes students at Elba City Schools can build on its tradition of excellence and be great in a new sport — track and field. That is why work is underway this school year for Elba High School to showcase its first ever team in track and field.

"Looking around at the athletic population at Elba, I felt like there were too many athletes and potential athletes here to not have the ability for them to participate in track," Reeves said. "Track is an interesting sport in that multiple people who wouldn't necessarily benefit from another sport can greatly benefit from track. It's also really awesome because you will have a complete mixture of the population from the school."

He said students began to get wind last year that he had experience as a track and field coach, and they came to him asking if there was any way to get the program started at Elba. Knowing it would be a lot of work to get a program started from square one, Reeves said he decided to move forward.

During some initial "interest" meetings, he said he had 50-70 students show interest in completing in track and field.

"That was very encouraging," he said. "Of course, in reality I know we won't have that many actually choose to participate, but if we could get just half those numbers, we have a really good chance at fielding a strong track and field team."

Since the original organization of the team, Reeves said the main focus has been fundraising for uniforms and equipment. He said that has been his priority because the team can't compete without the proper outfitting.

"We have a great community, and the response has been great," Reeves said. "The community can continue to support our efforts by supporting our fundraisers. I believe we should offer something in return and not just have our hands held out."

That is why Coach Reeves said his group works to make fundraisers like car washes and beef stick sales successful. He wants his athletes to earn it.

The track program also will be assisting basketball with concessions during that season.

Wiregrass Camellia Club invites all to Nov. 12 meeting

The Wiregrass Camellia Club will begin its seasonal meetings Tuesday, Nov. 12, at 3:30 p.m., at the fellowship hall of First Baptist Church, New Brockton, Ala. This is the third year of meetings for the Wiregrass Camellia Club. Leading the group are Dr. John Granger with Bill and Linda Nichols.

The Nichols are the experts, from whom attendees can learn a great deal about the camellia flower. They have over 5,000 camellias in their yard and gardens.

"Bill and Linda have received too many awards for their flowers to list," said Dr. John Granger. "They frequently judge flower shows across the south. They are responsible for several new varieties of the flower."

At each meeting of the Wiregrass Camellia Club, the Nichols usually bring beautiful specimens from their gardens.

"We encourage any members or guests to bring blooms, as well," Granger said. "Sometimes, people decide what kind of flowers they want after seeing these blooms."

Also, Mr. Nichols or another guest usually share a short program of helpful information about raising camellias. A large part of the meeting is simply enjoying fellowship and building friendship. Refreshments usually are provided. The group also occasionally enjoys field trips.

"If you love beautiful flowers, you probably will enjoy meeting with this group," Dr. Granger said. "We love camellias because they bloom throughout the winter."

There are no fees to join the club. All are invited to attend the Nov. 12th meeting.

program,” he said. “We just want the community to be a part of the family we are building with our track and field program.”

Coach Reeves said he wants to build a family...a group the community can be proud of when it represents Elba.

“I want to focus on building something Elba can be proud of before asking for things,” he said. “We want to prove this is a program worth supporting. I believe that proof will resolve itself.”

As for building the new program, Coach Reeves said year one is focused on establishing connection, commitment, encouragement, and team.

“My excitement is through the roof, and anyone who has watched me coach football knows I’ve got no shortage of energy,” he said. “We have got to take this one block at a time. Year one is going to be focused on building our foundation. I am going to ask a lot of my juniors and seniors this year to lead.”

He said track and field is going to give students so many different opportunities.

“I don’t think people realize just how successful we can be at this sport,” Reeves said. “With the athletes we have here at Elba, young and older, we have the chance to build a dominate program. We don’t want to just be a participation group.”

Coach Reeves said some offseason workouts [not more than two hours per week] for the track team would most likely begin after football season concludes. He is looking at December to start those limited workouts. Then, in January, the normal track season with practices.

Events range from sprinting events and hurdles to long jump, triple jump, high jump, javelin, shot put, discus throw, and possibly even, pole vaulting.

“We are just trying to get everything done early because I don’t want any hiccups when we get into February,” Coach Reeves said. “I want these kids focusing only on their training and performance when we get there. As for the community, we just ask that you support us and be a part of our family.”

Windy Thoughts

with Linda Hodge, Editor

We were saddened Monday night to learn of the passing of Jimmy Holley. Mr. Holley was, in our opinion, one of the best ever Legislators to represent our community and state, and his 40+ years serving in first the House of Representatives and later in the State Senate is a testament to that. He always worked to do what was best for his city, county and state. Having grown up with his son, Jason, we also knew Mr. Holley on a personal level, and he was a fine person. We were honored to call him a friend. It was an honor to know him both personally and professionally. We pray for comfort this week for his family – wife Mary, sons John and Jason, daughters-in-law Nicole and Julie, grandsons Dylan and Cooper, and all his extended family as they mourn the loss of this dear man. He will surely be missed by his family, friends, and all who knew him across the great State of Alabama.

Well...another Pumpkins on the Square has come and gone for the City of Elba. This annual event is sponsored each year by the Elba Chamber of Commerce and City of Elba. As always, there were people everywhere for the event. Overall, we believe the event can be deemed another huge success considering the crowd in downtown Elba last Thursday night. However, some of the stories we heard the following day are a bit concerning to us...we just don’t know the answer on how to ‘fix’ the problems. Pumpkins on the Square was created to give children [mostly those ages 12 and under] a safe environment to trick-or-treat and have fun with costume contests, bouncy houses, etc. It was and is supposed to be a night for the children. The reports we heard last Friday from business owners and civic leaders was there was an issue with “adults coming through the candy lines with their pillowcases wanting candy as well!” Come on, folks! Pumpkins on the square is not for adults to come get free candy...it is for the children! These adults trying to get the free candy are just creating chaos and could potentially be taking candy away from the children. It is not cheap on those passing out the candy and other items to purchase enough to accommodate the crowds the event draws, and adults taking away from the children does not help. We are sure there are reasons, at times, for an adult to help a child with his/her trick-or-treating, but there is no excuse for a grown person to be in the Pumpkins on the Square candy lines taking candy for themselves rather than a child. We are firm in this belief and we ask adults to refrain from doing this again next year. Let this be what it was intended to be...for the children of our community!

We were part of a group from the City of Elba last Thursday asked to take part in a tour of Fort Novosel. The ‘Meet Your Army’ tour was a daylong journey that allowed us to get a better view of the ‘inside’ daily workings of Fort Novosel. This event helps bridge the gap between our local Army base and the community to create great working relationships. It was a great day, and we truly enjoyed learning more about Fort Novosel. The highlight of the day, however, was getting to take flight in a Black Hawk helicopter! Now, that was a check on the ‘ole bucket list. We had a blast, and we thank the City of Elba folks for including us on the tour.

Monday, Nov. 11, is Veterans Day. We encourage you to thank a veteran on this day for his/her service to our country. As the daughter of a Vietnam Veteran, this day is very special for our family. Our veterans deserve to be honored and thanked for all they have done to protect the freedoms we enjoy daily. Again, please remember and thank our veterans this upcoming Monday, Nov. 11th! We salute you all!!

er that will be missed by many," said Senator Josh Carnley, who currently holds the Senate seat for District 31. "He was proud to call Coffee County home, and he worked for many years to make our schools and communities better than when he took office."

He said Holley did just that.

"I'll always remember how generous he was with his time when I had questions and needed his advice," Senator Carnley said. "His answers were not always what I wanted to hear, but he was honest and truthful in his words."

Carnley said Holley always listened to people and worked hard to help solve problems. He said that is what made Holley special to so many families.

"He served with honor, dignity and character," Carnley said. "Serving the people of Alabama was a passion, but Jimmy Holley's greatest joy was his family. His family is what he valued most, and that is an example we can all look up to in our own lives."

A full obituary for Jimmy Holley will be released by Hayes Funeral Home in Elba, Alabama. Funeral details were still pending as of press time this week.

Our Family Serving Your Family Since 1934

November is National Family Caregivers Month

National Family Caregivers Month is a time to honor and celebrate all those who care for their loved ones. Shopping, cleaning, bathing, arranging doctor visits, transportation and providing ongoing comfort for aging family members is both rewarding and difficult.

While caregiving can be a very rewarding job, it can also be stressful and isolating due to the demands on your time. Here are some coping tips for caregivers -

Seek support from other caregivers. You are not alone. Talking to others who are going through the same thing you are is beneficial.

Take care of yourself. It can be difficult to find time to take care of yourself. It's hard to take care of others if you are not happy and healthy. Learn how to effectively communicate with doctors. Take notes and keep them somewhere easy to find for visits and phone calls. Make sure to ask questions if you are unsure about what the doctor is saying.

Take breaks when you can. It can be hard to take a break if it leaves your parent without someone to care for them. However, there are options available for care. Respite care provides short-term care at a care facility or even in the home. Adult daycare is another possible option. Search for options in your area.

Make sure legal and medical information is up to date and organized. Keep information in an easy to find spot and check regularly to see if anything needs to be updated.

Don't be afraid to ask for help if you start to feel overwhelmed. Reach out to family and friends or seek help from a professional. Continue to learn. Seek out books, support groups or websites that can help you manage your stress and connect with other caregivers.

You are doing an incredible job and your work is important. Your caregiving responsibilities are unpaid, but that doesn't mean you aren't valuable. This is a tough job so make sure to give yourself credit.

To all caregivers, thank you for what you are doing every day. Your love and dedication make this world a better place.

We handed off the trick-or-treat candy distribution at our home to our daughter Melissa and grandson Lawson, and even though they probably won't admit it, I think they enjoyed the two -hour job of meeting people and making the children smile. It's really a once a year treat for everyone involved.

For what it is worth....

 The Elba Tigers will kick off the state high school football playoffs this week against Verbena, and while the Tigers fans may not be very familiar with the Red Devils, they have learned a lot about the Tigers in recent weeks and have watched the team grow up during the course of the season after a disastrous 1-2 start that included a 49-22 loss and an 80-78 four-overtime loss that made national headlines. Elba won its last seven games of the season to earn a homefield advantage in the post-season and in doing so saw a number of players with limited experience grow as players, and a team that was supposedly simply a 'one-man' team grow into a winning team filled with players that were willing to work hard and prove the Elba Tigers were still a team to keep an eye on when fans talked about state title favorites. There have been many growing pains along the way and most of the wins came in four-quarter battles. However, the Tigers have matured over the course of the season as the players gained experience, and with the playoffs now ready to kick off let's hope the Tigers regular season experience with carry over into the pressures of post-season play. Roar Tigers Roar!

 I was very disappointed last week to hear that Elba High had made the decision to not field a girl's junior high basketball team this season. The excuse I heard was that there weren't enough girls to have a team, but my guess is the girls that wanted to play didn't have much experience and it was easier to simply drop the sport this season than to take some beatings on the court. I have coached sports for almost all my life at various levels, including at the junior college level, and I am afraid the decision to not field a team may take years to overcome. If the team had to be filled with seventh graders and took its lumps, so what? Next season the returning players would have had a year of experience under their belts and would have been joined by the next group of girls from the upcoming seventh graders, and probably more than a couple of eighth graders. The decision was a major step backwards for girls basketball in Elba and won't be solved by just saying "wait until next year."

The failure to field a girls junior team in basketball came on the heels of another decision not to field a junior team in volleyball. Elba High had fielded a junior high, junior varsity and varsity team in volleyball for many years, but this season the decision was made to not put a junior team on the court. The excuse was that after tryouts there weren't enough girls left to make-up three teams. However, in years past the younger girls that weren't experienced enough were placed on the junior team and they learned the sport through hard work and coaching. The choice not to have a junior team set the tone for years to come and I will be surprised if the younger girls ever get the chance to come back out and start their careers from scratch.

I urge parents of girls that attend Elba High to take a keen interest in the future of girls sports and take an active role in making sure that the girls aren't just pushed aside due to excuses that there aren't enough players, aren't enough coaches, or the fact the coaches in place may not want to put in the extra hours needed to coach an extra team. If we can have twenty cheerleaders and a junior team in softball, there can't be that much of a shortage of players to fill the rosters.

 Kinston and Brantley both advanced to last week's 'Elite 8' state high school volleyball tournament last week, and while both teams were eliminated in first round action, the experience gained in the trip to the state tournament should pay dividends next season for the players and teams when they get back on the court. Kinston has been to the state tournament many times over the years, and to get back after missing out last season proved to the players and everyone in the state that the Kinston girls still know how to play, and win on the volleyball court. Brantley is a state power in almost all girls' sports and its trip to Birmingham showed that the girls are multi-talented, know how to win no matter the sport, and always have a state title as their goal. Brantley is still young in all girls' sports and having to get a lot of 'on the job' training, but they are learning fast and will always be a team to watch no matter the sport.

 The state high school football playoffs get underway this week and for once there is probably as much talk about the teams that didn't get in as the ones that did. The AHSAA was working overtime in recent days and bounced four teams out of the playoffs for having illegal players on the teams that didn't make 'bona fide' moves from one school to another. Coosa Christian had to forfeit four games last season, but still made the it all the way to the state finals in 1A. However, this time around the private school had to forfeit enough games to keep it out of the playoffs, and was also hit with restrictive probation, which means the school can't compete in the playoffs next season, ether. The fact Fultondale was hit didn't really make much news down here in south Alabama, but the fact Charles Henderson and Pike Lib were both knocked out of post-season play did open some eyes. The Trojans were informed only hours before their season finale and went from a number two seed to a winless team, while the Patriots found out a few weeks back and also out no wins in the books. While I place more blame on the parents and players that made the moves than the schools, it is still the responsibility of the schools to check and re-check all moves involving student-athletes. So, the blame has to be shared. The AHSAA released its post-season brackets over the weekend and after taking a quick look at the brackets it is easy to spot the teams to beat in all seven classifications. The AHSAA sets the brackets years in advance to help balance them out, and while there is a balance in most classes, there is always a possibility one side of a bracket can be loaded. In Class 1A, the top of the bracket includes McKenzie, Maplesville, Florala and Sweet Water, while in the bottom, teams that caught my eye were Leroy, Elba, Georgiana, Linden and Southern Choctaw. The favorites in the south – Maplesville and Leroy. In Class 2A, the top of the bracket includes Cottonwood, Goshen and Reeltown, while in the bottom are Clarke County, Loachapoka, Arton, Highland Home and Providence Christian. The favorites in the south – Cottonwood and Highland Home. In Class 3A, the top of the bracket has Montgomery Academy, Hillcrest Evergreen and Glenwood, while the bottom includes T.R. Miller, Trinity, Thomasville and Houston Academy. The favorites in the south - Montgomery Academy and T.R. Miller. In Class 4A, the top includes Dale County, Pleasant Grove and St. Michael's, while in the bottom are Jackson and Bibb County. The favorites in the south – Pleasant Grove and Jackson. In Class 5A, the top includes Montgomery Catholic, Central Clay County and Williamson, while in the bottom are Vigor, Demopolis and Andalusia. The favorites in the south – Montgomery Catholic and Vigor. In Class 6A, teams in the top of the bracket include Pike Road and Hueytown, with Saraland and Spain Park in the bottom. The favorites in the south – Pike Road and Saraland. In Class 7A, one side of the bracket includes Auburn, Thompson and Enterprise, with Central Phenix City, Hoover and Opelika being in the bottom. The favorites in the south – Auburn and Opelika.

 Friday night may have been the final time Coach Roland Jones, Jr., would walk the sidelines as the head coach of the Brantley Bulldogs, but the popular head coach went out in style as his team rallied from a fourth quarter deficit to pull out a win and in doing so gave Coach Jones his 150th career victory. 'Little Roland' began his coaching career as the offensive coordinator for his Dad (Roland Jones) at Brantley and later worked on the staff at Arton, but in 2003 made the move to head coach at Crenshaw Christian Academy and led the Cougars to an 83-30 record and eight trips to the AISA football playoffs. He came home in 2018 to take over as the head coach at Brantley, his alma mater, and in seven seasons led the Bulldogs to a 67-20 record, four region titles and six trips to the playoffs in seven seasons. Even though he will no longer walk the sidelines as the head coach, there will never be and never has been anyone that loved being a Brantley Bulldog more than Coach Roland Jones. Great job, and enjoy retirement!

 At least one college team in the state with some local fans got the chance to celebrate over the weekend as Troy snapped its four-game losing streak with a big 38-24 homecoming win over Coastal Carolina. The Trojans decided the travel by ground in the win and it paid off as they ran up and down the field to at least for one week lessen the pains of a losing season. Up on the plains, Auburn continued its offensive woes in a 17-10 loss to Vanderbilt and once again simply couldn't score enough points to help its defense. The Tigers have one of the top defenses in the conference, but it doesn't get much credit since the offense often seems lost and all the fans care about are wins and losses, not points allowed.

 Ye Ole Polish Prognosticator dropped by smiling about the extra hour he got to sleep, and stated the beginning of the football playoffs is always the most exciting time of the year for the fans and the hardest time of the year to make predictions at the high school level. The local guesspert hit on  of  picks a week ago to close out another banner year, and then left this week's fearless forecast. Here goes....

ELBA VS. VERBENA

The Pea River felines will be on the familiar turf at Mack Wood Field this week to open the playoffs and will have to be ready for a four-quarter battle against a coven of devils from up above the big river. The felines will have their hands full and will have to be at their best to move on, but that should be exactly what they have in mind.

ELBA 34 VERBENA 32

ZION CHAPEL VS. CLARKE COUNTY

The troops from up at Fort Jack will be taking a long hike across the state this weekend looking to trap a litter of dogs that have been causing trouble all season. While the troops will be ready and have their muskets loaded, these dogs are hard to pen up and may have just enough left to send the troops back home disappointed.

The Elba Tigers will kick off the 2024 high school football playoffs Friday night when they host the Verbena Red Devils, at Tiger Stadium.

Both teams will bring 8-2 records into the opening round 1A battle, and have never met before on the gridiron.

"This is certainly a very good opponent and we expect a four quarter battle," stated Elba's Coach Marc Sieving when asked about his team's upcoming playoff match-up against Verbena. "They didn't make the playoffs last season and are hungry to get back in post-season play and to move on into the second round. There is no doubt they have a really good team and will be ready to play when they arrive Friday night."

This will mark the Tigers fourth straight year in the playoffs and they have a 5-3 record over the last three years in the post-season. They own a 55-31 all-time playoff record and are 22-13 all-time in opening round games.

This season has been a bounce back year for the Red Devils after posting 2-8 record in 2023, and the Red Devils are 9-15 all-time in the playoffs and 7-8 all-time in opening round games.

"On offense they are huge up front and try to overpower you at the line of scrimmage," said Sieving. "They will line up with two tight-ends at the line of scrimmage, put three blocking backs in the backfield and put a running back five yards deep. They will wait for the clock to get inside ten seconds and then snap the ball and the running back will just run behind his blockers and grind out yards. The runner is shifty and does have the ability to jump outside, but their game plan is to snap to the runner and have him follow the line. Their offense is very effective getting four or five yards per carry, and is effective both moving the chains and keeping the clock running. They also have the skill players to spread it out when they want to, but their basic plan is to just line up, eat clock and move the ball on the ground."

"On defense we don't really know what they will do," added Sieving, "because everyone kind of plays us different. However, they like to put a lot of folks at the line of scrimmage and use their size to take away the inside running game. Their size is their biggest strength and they just like to clog things up stop the run. They have only given up around two touchdowns per game, which is partially because of their ball-control offense, and of course their size at the line on defense."

"For us to advance we will have to be physical at the point of attack on both offense and defense, get some stops on defense and be effective when we get the ball on offense," added Sieving. "On offense we will need to open it up a little more to help the running game be effective. However, we are a running team and won't change just because we are in the playoffs. Over on defense we have to get some stops and be physical at the line of scrimmage, while our defensive backs can't get caught looking in the backfield and allow a receiver to slip past. They have shown a desire to spread it out at times and have some skill folks that can get open. So, while our number one goal will be to stop the run and make them do something they really don't want to do, we must also do our job on every snap and play hard. All the goals we had before the season began are still in front of us and still within our reach, but all starts over again this week and we will have to play our best to keep those goals, and the season, alive."

Kickoff is set for 7 p.m. on Friday night at Tiger Stadium.

Rebels romp past Pleasant Home 43-14 for seventh win of season

From combined reports
Photos by Amada Clark

The Zion Chapel Rebels scored on their first four offensive series to grab a 27-0 lead and never looked back in a solid 43-14 road win over the Pleasant Home Eagles, Friday night at Pleasant Home.

Zion Chapel recovered an on-sides kick to open the game near midfield and marched 52 yards in six plays to get on the scoreboard. Brayden Benbow capped the early scoring drive with a 32-yard touchdown dash, and while the extra-point attempt failed, the Rebels were on top 6-0.

Zion Chapel began its next possession at the Pleasant Home 11-yardline after a partially blocked punt and needed four plays to cash in the short field, with John Foster Hamm crossing the goal line from 1-yard out. Benbow ran in the two-point conversion as the Rebels upped their lead to 14-0.

Zion Chapel got the ball back at midfield after a fumble recovery and four plays later was right back in the endzone. A 28-yard pass from Hamm to Benbow was a key play in the scoring drive, while the Rebel touchdown came on a 21-yard run by Joe Bradley. Jackson Dowdy kicked the extra-point as the Rebels lead grew to 21-0 late in the first quarter.

Zion Chapel began its next possession at its own 24-yardline after a defensive stop and the Rebels responded by going 76 yards in nine plays to add to their lead. An 18-yard pass from Josh Foster Hamm to Kavan Brown and a 10-yard run by Brayden Benbow helped the Rebels march down the field, with Benbow getting the score on a 1-yard run as Zion Chapel upped its lead to 27-0.

Pleasant Home showed signs of life on its ensuing possession and went 55 yards in nine plays to get on the scoreboard. A 33-yard pass from Devonte Purifoy to Tyler Purifoy was a key play in the drive, with the Eagle touchdown coming on a 1-yard run by Devonte Purifoy as Pleasant Home pulled within 27-6.

Pleasant Home received the second half kickoff and covered 85 yards in 16 plays to cut into the Rebel lead. Devonte Purifoy completed 6 of 7 passes for 73 yards, and the Eagles were three for three on fourth down conversions, and it was Purifoy that capped the long scoring drive with a 10-yard touchdown run. Purifoy passed to Logan Cook for the two-point conversion, and all of the sudden the Eagles were within 27-14.

Zion Chapel began its ensuing possession near midfield and overcame thirty yards in penalties to regain command. A 42-yard run by Brayden Benbow down the sidelines after a late pitch-out from John Foster Hamm was the key play in the scoring drive, while it was Hamm that reached the endzone on a 2-yard run. Hamm also passed for the two-point conversion as the Rebels' lead grew to 35-14.

Zion Chapel recovered an Eagle fumble at the Pleasant Home 42-yardline midway through the quarter and covered the distance to the endzone in seven plays to score the final points of the night. Hamm scored his third touchdown of the game on a 7-yard scamper, and the Rebels added the two-point conversion as they sealed the deal on the 43-14 road win.

Hands Coach Jones win #150

Brantley beats Ariton 45-27

From combined reports

The Brantley Bulldogs sent head coach Roland Jones out a winner and handed the popular coach his 150th career win Friday night with an exciting 45-27 come-from-behind win over the Ariton Purple Cats.

Brantley jumped out to an early 7-0 lead on an 11-yard run by Jayden Parks and the extra-point by Michael Thompson, but Ariton bounced right back and pulled within 7-6 on its initial series when Wells Ganey scored the first of his two touchdowns of the night.

The Bulldogs stretched their lead to 13-6 late in the opening quarter on a 5-yard pass from Parks to Daylan Davis and then upped their lead to 19-6 early in the second quarter on a 28-yard pass from Parks to Tyler Carter, only to see the Purple Cats battle back and cut the lead to 19-13 on a 50-yard run by Ganey and the extra-point by Conner Davidson.

Jayden Parks and Cooper Layton hooked up on a 35-yard touchdown toss late in the quarter as the Bulldogs extended their lead to 25-13. However, Ariton refused to let the Bulldogs pull away and scored in the final minute of the half on a 7-yard pass from Addison Senn to Jaden Caple, and after Davison again added the extra-point, Brantley went in at intermission with a slim 25-20 advantage.

Ariton grabbed its first lead of the night in the third quarter on a 9-yard run by Triston Silavent and Davidson again kicked the extra-point to put the Purple Cats on top 27-25, and that is what the scoreboard still read heading into the fourth quarter.

Brantley's Tyler Carter scored his first rushing touchdown of the night and the Bulldogs added a two-point conversion to regain the lead at 33-27, and when Carter crossed the goal line again on a 2-yard run the lead was up to 39-27.

Jayden Parks sealed the victory celebration late in the final stanza on a 27-yard td toss to Cooper Layton, and while the extra-point attempt failed, it made no difference to anything but the final score as the Bulldogs claimed the exciting 45-27 win. Jayden Parks completed

What does the Bible say about... God's Care?

Article written by Douglas Williams

"Casting all your care upon Him, for He cares for you" (1 Peter 5:7).
"But the very hairs of your head are all numbered" (Matthew 10:30).

"I have been young, and now am old; yet I have not seen the righteous forsaken, nor his descendants begging bread" (Psalm 37:25).

"Fear not, for I am with you; be not dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you, yes, I will help you. I will uphold you with my righteous hand" (Isaiah 41:10).

As here and so many times the Bible tells us not to fear or be afraid. Moses told the people not to fear (Exodus 14:13; 20:20). "For God has not given us a spirit of fear, but of power and of love and of a sound mind" (2 Timothy 1:7). See also Psalm 23:4; 27:1; Isaiah 41:10; Luke 12:32; Ecclesiastes 12:13-14).

At Matthew 10:28-31, Jesus tells of God's care for us by reminding us of God's care for birds, and concludes "Do not fear therefore; you are of more value than many sparrows."

At Exodus 15:26 God tells the people that if they obey Him He will "put none of the diseases on you which I have brought on the Egyptians."

Dr. S. I. McMillen wrote a book entitled, "None of These Diseases" based on this Scripture. He points out that if we obey God by "clean living" and good sanitary practices it will protect us from many problems that we may encounter otherwise.

Trust in the Lord (Proverbs 3:5-6), and remember, "If God is for us, who can be against us" (Romans 8:31).

Beautiful Feet

Gene Dulin of TCM International tells about a missionary in Southeast Asia who worked to win a remote village to Christ. One day he told the villagers about the love of God that allowed His Son to be nailed to a cross. The members of the tribe had never seen a nail, and when the missionary showed them one and explained how nails had been used to crucify Christ, the entire village accepted Him. The chief was especially moved and insisted on accompanying the missionary to neighboring villages. Day after day the barefooted chief led the way over rough trails where his feet were cut and bruised by thorns and rocks. The missionary had only to follow the chief's bloody prints in order to be led to villages where he could preach about Jesus.

Paul, quoting Isaiah, observed, "How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!" [Romans 10:15, New International Version]. To those of us in the civilized areas of the world, these words lose a great deal of their meaning; for those in the undeveloped areas, however, as well as for those who lived in the past, they are most appropriate. For such people the feet of good-news-bearing messengers - even dirty, bleeding feet - may be described as beautiful. - T.T.
